VII. SERVICE: COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT, CONSULTING FOR PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS AND NGOs

Consulting for municipalities and non-profit organizations on topics related to leadership, people management, and organizational change as part of Service-Learning projects in collaboration with undergraduate student teams (2019 - present). Projects are carried out in collaboration with undergraduate students, student-tutors, and professionals from the School of Management at PUC. The following are examples of the projects developed over the past 5 years:

Identical projects performed at Municipalidades of Peñalolén and Melipilla (1-2021 to 2-2024)

- Design of a leadership competency model and survey to measure 360° over 80 individuals in the municipalities assigned to lead digital transformation in their areas. Individual feedback for all leaders. (135+ student participants)
- Evaluation of organizational culture elements with an emphasis on physical aspects and cultural symbols (using a quantitative model). (20 student participants)
- Evaluation of municipal workers' attitudes towards the Digital Transformation change process and management practices related to this process (20 student participants)
- Analyses of external and internal organizational forces that facilitate or hinder the Digital Transformation process for different municipal departments. (50 student participants)

Municipality of Providencia (2021-2023):

- Diagnosis of needs and proposal for a communication plan for the new sustainability strategy, based on interviews, visits, and benchmarking. Projects aimed at different audiences. (12 student participants)

Municipality of Puente Alto (2020-2022):

- Organizational Climate Study (28 student participants)
- User satisfaction analysis of the services provided by Puente Familia programs using the SERVQUAL model (28 student participants)
- Individualized evaluation of self-care practices and burnout among Puente Familia program staff (16 student participants)
- 360° evaluation of leadership styles in eight service units of Puente Familia, and the alignment of these styles with the programs, mission, and vision of these units. (32 student participants)
